

Women in Song V

The OSSTF District 11 Human Rights and Status of Women Committee invites members and their accompanist or band members to apply to perform in the 5th annual “Women in Song” evening. We welcome applications from performers who are female some or all of the time, transwomen, non-binary, and cisgender women.

The performance will be held on Friday, April 6, 2018 at the Aeolian Hall in London. The theme of the evening is “LOVE” in all of its permutations.

If you are interested in performing “live” at the Aeolian Hall, please email Rebecca Calvert-Hamilton at rebeccacalverthamilton@osstf11.com by Friday, November 24, 2017 at 4pm. You may include a short sound clip of one of your songs of approximately 30 seconds to one minute in length.

Be sure to include the following information:

Name:

Personal E-mail:

Phone Number:

Stage Name of Individual or Group (if Applicable):

List Name(s) of Group Members or Accompanist, (if Applicable):

You should expect to receive an email confirmation indicating receipt of your application. Please note: While we appreciate your application, this will not guarantee a spot in the show. Each performer/group will be limited to approximately 3 songs.

We look forward to hearing from you 😊
