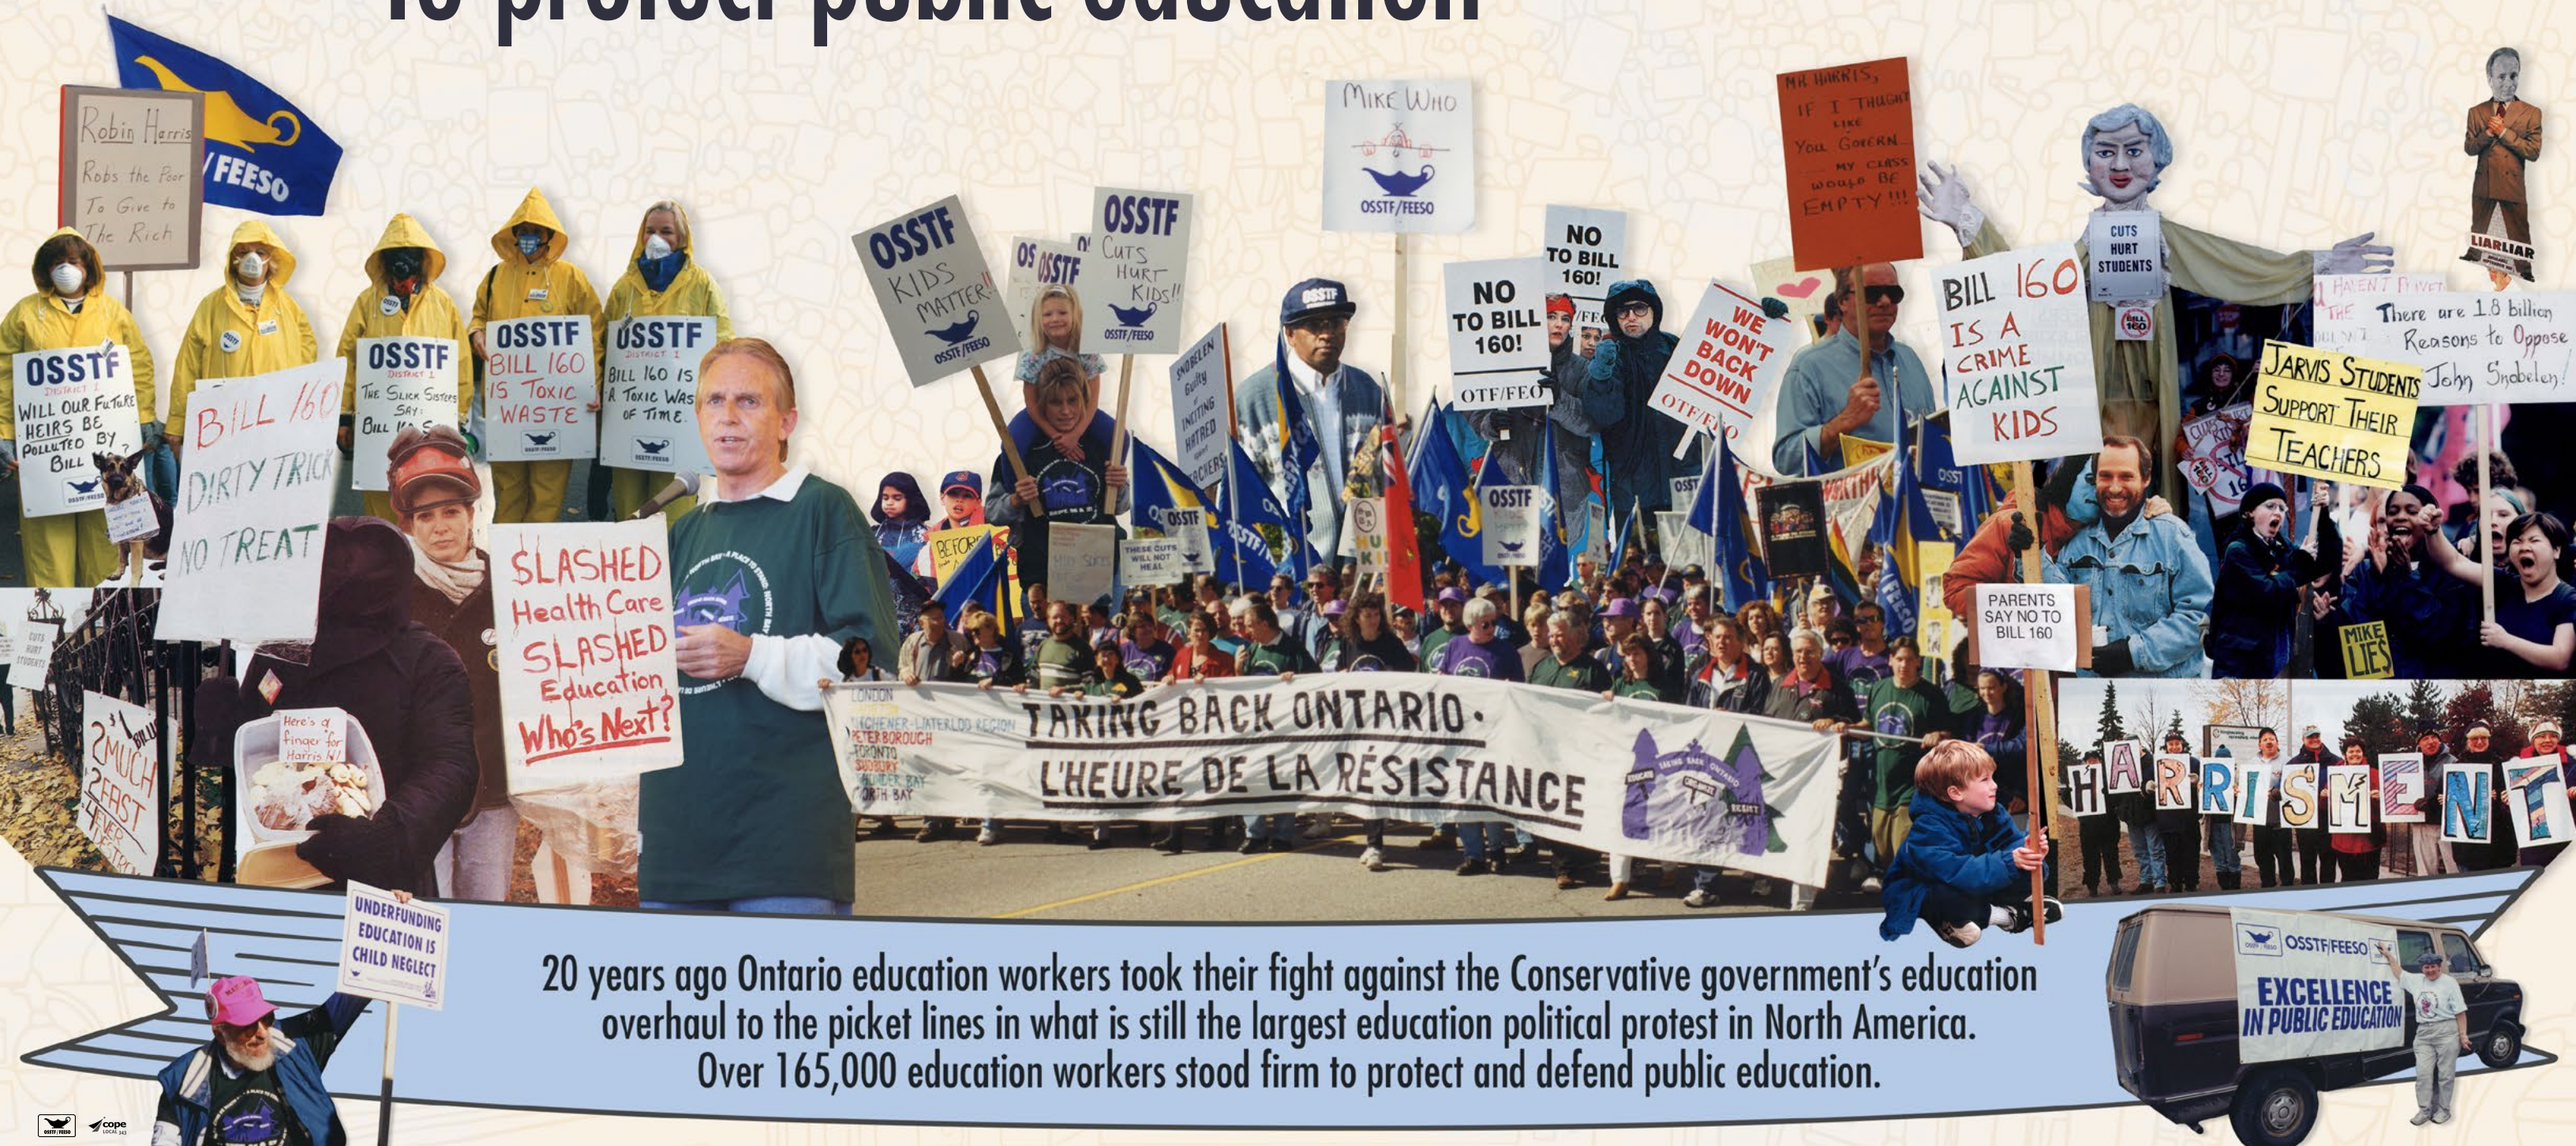
OSSTF/FEESO

20 years ago Ontario education workers put themselves on the line to protect public education

October 27–November 7, 1997



20 years ago Ontario education workers took their fight against the Conservative government's education overhaul to the picket lines in what is still the largest education political protest in North America. Over 165,000 education workers stood firm to protect and defend public education.

OSSTF/FEESO cope LOCAL 343