Peggy Sattler NDP - London West

Campaign Office: Unit #4 312 Commissioners Road West, London, ON, N6J 1Y3

Phone #: 519-690-0777

Website: <https://peggysattler.ontariondp.ca>

Email: peggy.sattler@ontariondp.ca

Peggy was elected MPP for London West in 2013 and served as a Trustee with the Thames Valley District School Board for 13 years and was instrumental in helping balance a $660 million budget in her term as Chair. As former Director of Policy at Academia Group, Peggy led a project to connect employers with job seekers in London. As a tireless advocate for community issues, Peggy played a key role in the establishment of the Ability First coalition, an award-winning initiative to assist employers in hiring people with disabilities.

Teresa Armstrong NDP - London-Fanshawe

Campaign Office: Unit 14 972 Hamilton Road, London, ON, N5W 1V6

Phone #: 519-451-0099

Website: <https://teresaarmstrong.ontariondp.ca>

Email: teresa.armstrong@ontariondp.ca

Teresa has been MPP for London-Fanshawe since 2011 where she has valued community partnerships and championed inclusivity in London. As a critic for seniors' issues, Teresa introduced a motion for a five day home care guarantee. She has acted as the past President of the East London Lioness Club and served as one of the first chairs of the Argyle Resource Centre. No stranger to the world of politics, Teresa has worked alongside her husband Bill, City Councillor for Ward 2, for many years organizing community events from Canada Day celebrations to clean up initiatives at Lord Nelson and Forestview Parks.

Terence Kernaghan NDP - London North Centre

Campaign Office: Unit #10 1050 Kipps Lane, London, ON, N5Y 4S5

Phone #: 519-601-6673

Website: <https://terencekernaghan.ontariondp.ca>

Email: terence.kernaghan@ontariondp.ca

Terence is an elementary teacher, community advocate and arts enthusiast who has called London home since he was three years old. As a youth, he volunteered for the London Regional Children's Museum, and is involved with the Thames Valley Teacher-Librarians' Association and the London & District Labour Council. As a teacher-librarian, Terence promotes cultural understanding, social justice awareness and community helpers through his Human Library programs. Terence lives in London with his partner Jim and works as an executive member on his local union's (ETFO) Political Action and Human Rights/Social Justice committees.

Website: <https://amandastratton.ontariondp.ca>

Email: amanda.stratton@ontariondp.ca

Amanda is a savvy entrepreneur, business owner and award-winning community organizer. She co-founded Hacker Studios, developed the Startup Canada Startup Communities Program, and has mentored and empowered hundreds of entrepreneurs across the country. Her passion for advocacy and social justice is reflected in her years of service on numerous civic and non-profit boards and committees, including founding the London Transit Riders Alliance. In 2017, Amanda was nominated for the Everyday Political Citizen award and received the Government of Ontario's 2017 Leading Women Building Communities Award.

Tara King NDP – Oxford

Campaign Office: 512 Dundas Street, Woodstock, ON,

Phone #: 226-242-0853

Website: <https://taraking.ontariondp.ca>

Email: tara.king@ontariondp.ca

As a lifelong student and educator, Tara is passionate about restoring and improving our education system across the province. Tara is an active OSSTF member dedicated to all workers' rights and will make sure Oxford residents have a strong voice at Queens' Park. She is driven by a desire to help those in need and when not advocating for working families and important issues, she can be found spending time with her family.

Todd Case NDP – Lambton-Kent-Middlesex

Campaign Office: E11 51 Front Street E (inside the Kenwick Mall), Strathroy, ON, N7G 1Y5

Phone #: 519-205-0571

Website: <https://toddcase.ontariondp.ca>
