 - 3.3.9.1.5 federation policy and bylaw interpretation,
 - 3.3.9.2 to provide operational support to the various Standing Committees and Ad Hoc Committees of the District,
 - 3.3.9.3 to provide support to the Bargaining Units,
 - 3.3.9.4 to assist in the vetting of Board of Education policy,
 - 3.3.9.5 to be a representative of the District on joint committees with other organizations,
 - 3.3.9.6 to keep the District Executive Council, Provincial Office and the membership of the District appropriately informed,
 - 3.3.9.7 to prepare recommendations for the District Executive Council,
 - 3.3.9.8 to assist in Bargaining Unit negotiations at the request of the Bargaining Unit and the direction of the District President,
 - 3.3.9.9 to present a list of Workplaces to the District Executive Council at the beginning of each school year,
 - 3.3.9.10 to perform other duties as assigned by the President and the District Executive Council.

2. General Duties and Responsibilities of the Federation Services Officers

The Federation Services Officer:

- [a] Carries out all directions and duties delegated by the District Executive Council and the District Annual General Meeting.
- [b] Takes a leadership role in the District as a non-voting member of the District Executive Council and provides assistance and support to the Bargaining Unit and Committees to which they are assigned as liaison.
- [c] Communicates with the District Executive on planning and strategic issues facing OSSTF.
- [d] Assists the District and/or Provincial Executive to carry out the priorities and directives of the district and the province.
- [e] Keeps confidential information received pertaining to OSSTF and its operations, except as such information is necessary and proper to disclose for the proper operation of OSSTF and the proper conduct of duties.
- [f] Is available at all times during normal business hours or such other times as may be directed, to deal with matters of the Federation.
- [g] Prepares, keeps records and files official documents (minutes, correspondence, etc.) as pertain to the assignments in their portfolio.
- [h] Performs other related duties requested from time to time by the District Executive.

GENERAL SELECTION PACKAGE

APPLICATION PACKAGE

The cover letter/resume and the 3-5 samples of work done will be assessed in each of the following:

- Content (credentials, experience, knowledge)
- Communication Skills (grammar, articulation)
- Evidence of professionalism and skill requirements

INTERVIEW

- The interview process will take 60 minutes in total and will consist of three parts: a case study (15 minutes), the oral interview (25 minutes), and a practical written task (20 minutes).
- Case Study: You will be given a situation and a question pertaining to it. You may make notes to take with you to the oral interview so that you may refer to them there.
- Practical Written Task: You will be given a situation about which you need to prepare a written response. You will be given access to paper, a computer, a printer and a dictionary. You will prepare and type the item, then print it and submit it to Keri in the envelope provided. The written response will be assessed in each of the following:
 - Knowledge of OSSTF—policies, positions, issues
 - Interpersonal Skills (awareness of audience, persuasiveness)
 - Communication Skills (grammar, articulation)
 - Computer Skills (use of software application and printer)
- Oral Interview: The first part of the interview will be a response to the question of the case study, and then there will be four additional questions. Each of the answers will be assessed in each of the following:
 - Knowledge of OSSTF—structures, policies, positions, issues, bargaining units—and/or board/Ministry, as appropriate to the question.
 - Communication skills (grammar, articulation)
 - Evidence of leadership, professionalism and interpersonal skills, as appropriate to the question.
 - Ability to "think on one's feet" and evidence of initiative and problem-solving.
